My dear Miss Whitney

I hope you are not angry with me for not having answered your kind letter before this, but I have had so much to do about my house that it was quite impossible for me to have my likeness taken; the last two months I suffered so much from tooth-ache, throat and swollen faces, that I looked horrid, but now I am a regular beauty again and so I took the courage to sit; I hope you will like it and if I succeeded in giving you a little pleasure I shall be very glad of it. - I don't know how to thank you for your nice letter; I was so happy when I saw your lines and I look every day at your photograph and I think of the happy time I spent, when you and Dear Miss Manning were here. I certainly shall never forget you, my dear ladies, you have been the most amiable boarders I ever had. - As you take such a kind interest in me, I am happy to tell you, that my business is going on remarkably well; my house has been full all the winter and all summer and I think this winter will be a good one too; I had always very nice people and if it continues so, I am quite satisfied. - I should feel so happy if you and Dear Miss Manning would come to Munich again; I should so much like to see you once more in this life; meanwhile I will always look at your photograph and smile at it. I am very thankful to Miss Manning for having almost forced you to have it taken.

You wish me not to work too much, but I cannot follow your advice, because I have to look after my house, from morning till evening; I do not wish to leave anything into the hands of my servants, though I have very trustworthy ones. - The last fortnight I had so much to do, because I allowed my maid, "Theresa" to go with some of my boarders to Vienna, but now she has come back and I am a little more at my ease, and it is the first thing I do, to answer your nice letter. - I enclose another photograph, please, kindly to give it to Miss Manning with my best compliments

Dahlweiner
"German Lovers"

and to keep the other for yourself.

Farewell, my dear Miss Whitney, if ever you have time, and you will kindly favor me with a letter I shall be very thankful to you. I am

Yours most aff.

Caroline Dahlweiner
